Casey Rohrer Accessible Playground

The Casey Rohrer Accessible Playground is named in honor of Hermosa Beach resident Casey Rohrer who wished for a park that was accessible to all children and served as an inspiration for the 2016 renovation that provided the accessible playground.

"This playground is great because all kids can play together now." – Casey Rohrer, South Park Ribbon Cutting Ceremony, 2016

DISCUSSION

Should Council approve the recommendations, the City would coordinate a celebration for the renaming of the Greenbelt Accessible Trail in May of June 2025 and a celebration for the renaming of the South Park accessible playground in August 2025.
