

C I T Y O F H E R M O S A B E A C H
M E M O R A N D U M

DATE: August 21, 2017
TO: Honorable Mayor and Members of the City Council
FROM: Sergio Gonzalez, City Manager
SUBJECT: SUPPLEMENTAL INFORMATION FOR 8/22/17 AGENDA, ITEM 7A – VISTA DEL MAR UPDATE

On Friday, August 19th, Los Angeles Councilmember Mike Bonin's office announced the names of the 20 people appointed to the Playa del Rey Safer Streets Task Force. The task force is comprised of no elected officials and includes a variety of residents and business owners both for and against the lane reductions. According to Bonin's office, the task force will begin meeting next week with the assistance of a professional facilitator and will have 90 days to make recommendations to the public, to Councilmember Bonin and to the Los Angeles Department of Transportation.

The Playa del Rey Safer Streets Task Force:

John Russo, Playa del Rey resident
Julie Ross, Playa del Rey resident
Jim McCafferty, Playa del Rey resident
Mike Monaghan, Playa del Rey resident
Nancy Brown, Playa del Rey resident
Katie Clarke, Playa del Rey resident
Brooke Eaton, Playa Vista resident
Marcia Hanscom, Playa del Rey resident
Lisa Schwab, Playa del Rey business owner
Ryan Wewers, Playa del Rey resident
Kevin White, Playa del Rey resident
Jennifer Dakoske, Playa del Rey resident
Liz Hall, Playa del Rey business owner
Pamela Mayer, Playa del Rey business owner
Michele Cooley-Strickland, Playa del Rey resident
Greg Dina-Pham, Westchester resident
Todd DiPaola, Manhattan Beach resident and Westside business owner
Emilia Crotty, a pedestrian safety activist from LA Walks.
Peter Flax, Manhattan Beach resident
Dave Pedersen, Manhattan Beach resident